[No. 5065.]

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAMMOND'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
This Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further,
that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.
To persons who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.
Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Lowness of spirits back
Loss of appetite Indigestion
Impurity of blood Melancholy
Hysterical affection Gout in the stomach Inward weaknesses Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.
A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals,
the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ring
worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops
For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

Important improvement in the Manu- facture of Paper.

We have lately visited the paper mills of T. Gilpin & Co. on the Brandywine, and witnessed the performance of their New Machine for manufacturing paper, on an extensive scale, which promises to be an important addition to the arts and manufactures of our country. This process of making paper, delivers a sheet of greater breadth than any made in America, and of any length—in one continued unbroken succession of fine or coarse materials, regulated at pleasure to a greater or lesser thickness. The paper when made is collected from the machine on reels, in succession as they are fitted, and these are removed to the further progress of the manufacture. The paper in its texture is perfectly smooth and even, and is not excelled by any made by hand, in the usual manner of workmanship—as it possesses all the beauty, regularity and strength, of what is called well closed and well shut sheets. The Mills and engines now prepared are calculated to do the daily work of ten paper mills, and will employ a water power equal to about 12 to 15 pair of millstones of the usual size.

The apparatus and machine are on a principle and construction entirely new, and are patented by the inventors here. It has been very expensive, and has been brought to its present state of perfection, with much labour, ingenuity and perseverance.

It is with pleasure we announce the success of this machine; and we hope it will tend to secure our country against the importations from abroad, which have so much interfered with our domestic arrangements; and we are much gratified in believing that its establishment on our own stream, so immediately in the neighborhood of this place, will aid its improvement, and add to the valuable manufactures on the Brandywine.

[Delaware Watchman.]

HISTORICAL SCRAP.

Mr. Editor—The following affecting incident, is related by Russel, in the history of the German Empire, and is worthy, I conceive, of a place in your paper: especially when we consider the harsh and comparatively uncivilized character of the times in the beginning of the twelfth century.

Conrad, Duke of Franconia, was then Emperor; but his title to the throne being disputed by Henry the Haughty, of the family of Guelf, gave rise to a sanguinary war. Henry dying, the war was prosecuted by the Duke's brothers. Hence the following incident.

"Duke Guelf, and his principal adherents were besieged in the Castle of Weinsberg, and having sustained a great loss in a sally, were obliged to surrender at discretion. The Emperor, however, instead of using his good fortune with rigor, granted the duke, and his chief officers permission to retire unmolested. But the Duchess, suspecting the generosity of Conrad, with whose enmity against her husband she was well acquainted, begged that she and the other women in the castle, might be allowed to come off with as much as each of them could carry and be conducted to a place of safety.—The request was granted, and the evacuation was immediately performed.—when the emperor and his army, who expected to see every lady loaded with jewels, gold and silver, beheld to their astonishment, the duchess and her fair companions staggering beneath their husbands. The tears ran down Conrad's cheeks; he applauded their conjugal tenderness, and an accommodation with Guelf and his adherents was the consequence of this act of female heroism."

ABSENCE OF MIND.

Wm. Mason, Esq. author of the "Spiritual Treasury," while engaged in that work, was called upon by a gentleman on business. Instead of taking his name and address, as desired, and as he thought he had done, he wrote the chapter and verse on which he had been meditating; and when he came afterwards to look at the paper in order to wait upon the gentleman, he found nothing upon it but the second, verse the eighth; so much was his mind absorbed in divine things.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Halifax, in a commercial house in this town, dated September 23.

"The present merely serves to advise you of the advance which all coarse wools have experienced in our market since June and July—say from 10 to 20 per cent. Blankets, flannels, and all the heavier sort have risen 20 per cent, and the demand is very considerable."

We state with pleasure that the President of the United States has appointed Commodore Joshua Barney, Naval Officer of the port of Baltimore, in the place of Colonel Ranney, deceased. This appointment will meet the wishes of our citizens generally, and is a proof that his services during the late war have not been forgotten. [Baltimore American.]

The hon. James Lloyd, representative to congress from Suffolk district, Massachusetts, has resigned his seat owing to the bad state of his health. This gentleman is said to possess considerable talents and is one of the agents appointed by the state of Massachusetts to confer with the general government on the subject of claims brought forward by that state for the services of its militia during the late war, which were refused to be placed under the orders of the United States. [Ibid.]

A Public Dinner is about to take place in Philadelphia among the friends of Mr. Findlay, in consequence of his success in the late election for Governor. Mr. Findlay's majority is stated to be 7395. [Ibid.]

AN EARLDOM.

It is currently reported that a young man, named Williams, who keeps a retail store at Middletown, Connecticut, is ascertained to be the rightful heir to an earldom in England, with an income of 15,000 sterling per annum; and that documents, authorising him to take immediate possession of his estate and title, have just been received. We understand his parents emigrated from Bermuda.—He is said to be a man of fair character, and of unassuming manners.

A young man of fashion in England, who lately came in possession of at least $40,000 per annum, is said to have lost the whole at cards!

Pittsburgh, Pa. Oct. 18.

Distressing.—A young man, but lately arrived in this place from Ireland, had his arm dreadfully lacerated on Wednesday morning last, by venturing too near a cage in which a tiger is kept for show. The ferocious animal seized him with his claws, and drew him to the bars of the cage, and with his teeth tore nearly all the flesh off his arm from the shoulder to the elbow. It was with considerable difficulty that the unfortunate young man was released from his horrible situation. The arm has been amputated, and very slight hopes are entertained of his recovery.

HEALTH OF THE CITY.

We are happy that we can, as in "times past," boast of the health of our city. The bill of mortality for the week ending the 26th instant, reports only 17 deaths, being the least number since the week from the 15th to 22d June last.

DEBTS.

The public are informed that cents, for any moderate amount, may be had at the Mint of the United States, in exchange for specie, or any notes receivable in the Bank of the United States.

Richmond, October 31.

A curious fact has been witnessed in the Virginia Museum. A few days ago a little mouse was put into the same box with four rattlesnakes. It was supposed that the snakes, who had had no sort of nourishment for several weeks, would immediately devour the little stranger. Instead of this being the case, the mouse immediately pounced on the neck of the smallest snake, and began to gnaw the flesh at the junction of the neck with the head. The snake in vain attempted to dislodge him; but the mouse continued its attacks during the day with such pertinacity, that, finally, it had gnawed a deep hole in the neck, and the snake was taken out as dead. It has begun to revive.—Next morning the mouse was found dead in the cage, considerably swelled.

THE CASE OF ABRAHAM KESLER. The facts detailed in the following, are highly interesting. The information is derived from a source which may be relied on. On trials of this nature, too much caution cannot be observed in weighing testimony which is to decide the fate of a fellow being. At the late court of oyer & terminer, held in & for Schoharie county, Kesler was sentenced to be executed on the 17th inst. for the murder of his wife. We think his case exhibits some extraordinary features.

It appears that Kesler's wife fell sick on the road home; that he administered some medicine to her, which he said he had procured from a neighboring physician; and that, after languishing some days, she died, and was buried. Two months after her decease, her body was disinterred and examined by some eminent physicians; and their opinion being unfavorable to Kesler, he was apprehended, tried and convicted,—they agreeing in sentiment that arsenic had been administered to her—a full and detailed report of the case was made to the governor by the judge who presided at the trial. The governor transmitted this report to the distinguished professor of chemistry in the university, and requested his opinion on the scientific parts of the testimony. In consequence of his request a long and learned communication was made, declaring in substance, that the only infallible experiments to detect the existence of arsenic, had not been adopted by the physicians, and that the tests supplied were in no respects conclusive.

In addition to this, the foreman of the Jury, who found Kesler guilty, made a representation to the governor, stating that the Jury deliberated three hours before they convicted Kesler, and that they acted under an impression that his case would be reviewed by the Legislature.

A similar case has recently occurred in Great Britain, wherein Mr. Brande of the Royal Institution, testified in favor of the sufficiency of a test adopted to detect poison, and which had been used on this occasion.

It was also understood that Kesler, without any hope or expectation of relief, has uniformly asserted his innocence.

In order that this subject may have a full examination, and that the scientific part of the testimony may be fully elucidated and distinctly understood for the government of our courts, and for analogous cases, the Governor has with the advice of some of the most eminent Jurors, considered it proper to suspend the execution of Kesler, until the meeting of the Legislature.

INTERESTING MEMORANDUM FROM ST. HELENA.

The following memorandum of observations made by Bonaparte in a conversation with some English gentlemen lately at St. Helena, has been transmitted to us from that island. We have the most positive assurances given to us of the narrative being accurate (though we have not all that passed at length) and it is worthy of the peculiar attention of the public. It should turn out that any passages in it in the slightest degree incorrect, we shall make it our business to point out and rectify the mistake.

Memorandum of observations made by Bonaparte in a conversation with some gentlemen who lately touched at St. Helena, in their way to England.

"After the usual salutations, Bonaparte alluded to Gardanne's mission, by observing that he had shown the road from Constantinople to Persia—then rapidly adverted to India, he asked what the Russians were about on their Asiatic frontier?—And, with little attention to the replies, proceeded to speak of the powers of the different sovereigns, and of their views. The Russians he said were the most formidable people in Europe—England and France had not the same military advantages, although their troops had more moral power than any of the other nations. A Frenchman on becoming a soldier leaves a better country than any he can be called to serve in—and the Englishman in general finds himself worse off abroad than at home—so that only the refuse of the population is inclined to enter the army. The Russian, on the contrary, ceases to be a miserable slave, and becomes literally a freeman when he quits Russia. He improves his condition; he finds comforts which he never could enjoy at home; and consequently Alexander might increase his army to any amount upon service out of his own dominions, and if he organized Poland well he would secure the command of Europe: Alexander's object had always been to take Constantinople, but he, Napoleon, had distinctly told him that he never would permit the Greek Cross to be placed on the crown of the Czar.—Austria was willing to assist the views of Russia, if she herself was to be guaranteed in possession of the provinces contiguous to the Turkish frontier—so that France and England would be left alone to defend Turkey. In speaking of the power of Russia for objects of conquest, he said the Cossacks were formidable, not so much from their numbers as their peculiar ability to endure privations in traversing unknown countries. They also resembled the Bedouin Arabs in the gift of vision—so great in this respect was the faculty of the Bedouins, that when in Egypt upon an occasion when he wished by means of his telescope to observe a body of men that appeared on the horizon, he had scarcely levelled his glass when a Bedouin near him reengined with the naked eye another Bedouin, and described his dress, &c. so as to distinguish the tribe to which he belonged.

"England, he said, could never become a continental power. Forty-five thousand men, with all the bravery of the nation, could never give her authority on the continent. A naval and commercial system was alone adopted to her situation, and could alone preserve her from the ruin with which she was threatened. Lord Wellesley was right in saying that the distress was permanent. Lord Castlereagh had made himself a courtier to the sovereigns, and had neglected the interests of England. England was like the dog looking at its shadow in the water, and who dropped the meat out of its mouth. If they had an able minister in the British cabinet at the arrangement of the affairs of Europe, the terms of the peace would have been very different from those concluded. The utmost possible extension of commerce, and a total relinquishment of continental military ambition, could alone rescue England from its present difficulties. The king of Portugal should have been made to grant five years exclusive privilege of trade with the Brazils, as the price of the Portuguese throne.

"In former times the English ministers had made peace like merchants, and had filled the pockets of their country. The present ministers had set up for gentlemen, and had ruined themselves.

"In the year 1783, England threatened to go to war again, if France did not agree to the commercial treaty, which speedily ruined her. The French ministers were obliged to accede to the demand, as they had no money, though the consequence was foreseen. The documents in the Bureau des Affaires Etrangères would prove this anecdote. England, in throwing away the advantage of her naval power, acted like Francis I. at Pavia, who having stationed a battery of 45 pieces of cannon (in those days a numerous force of artillery) and which battery would have assured him the victory, interposed himself and his Gens d'armes between the guns and the hostile lines that they could not fire; and drawing his magnificent grand sabre he lost the battle. The naval blockade was like rubbing the body with oil to prevent perspiration, and then suffering as my face does at this moment, (said Bonaparte) an eruption for the want of it.—If England made use of her maritime superiority, she might send ambassadors to command foreign courts. Now she was insulted with prohibitory decrees in every petty state. With 45,000 men, he repeated again and again, England could never become a continental power; besides, the attempt would be fatal to that free constitution in which the English so justly pride themselves, and which in truth has been the source of her extraordinary power, commensurate with her extent.

"What had been the result of her military efforts? She had got possession of her person, and an opportunity to show her want of generosity. She had disturbed the legitimacy of thrones, since he was the lawful sovereign of France. He wished for general peace, as it was his true interest, and the only way by which he could be relieved from the rock on which he was now confined.

"He then entered into a long personal diatribe against the governor Lowe, on the treatment he had received, and of the many misrepresentations of his conduct which had been put forth. He spoke of Mr. Warden's publication as unfounded in almost every particular, and expressed himself in severe terms of Lord Bathurst's speech. He was surprised, he said, at Lord Sidmouth's and Lord Liverpool's want of decent propriety towards him on the discussion, as he thought he had shown them civility to assure him a more liberal treatment. England, he concluded, was in a curious predicament—she has won all, and is ruined."

From the Federal Republican.

In the commotions that have taken place in the world, we are but too liable to believe that all these mighty changes are for the accomplishment of human views, and for human aggrandisement. Bonaparte, for instance, when Europe was prostrate at his feet, thought himself the founder of a new dynasty, and all the effusion of human blood occasioned by his elevation, he deemed was poured forth for his sole and exclusive benefit. At such seasons man is prone to forget that he is but an humble agent in the hand of the Almighty—that he is but accomplishing the purposes of God, and fulfilling the prophecies contained in the holy scriptures.—But it is to be remembered that every individual of the human race, whether civilized or savage, whether learned or unlearned, whether bond or free, whether monarch or subject, whether christian or infidel, is but an instrument in the hand of his Creator—he is but acting his part, and unconsciously carrying on the purposes of his existence.—Free agency is as much an instrument in the hand of the Deity, as Predestination. Voltaire was a free agent, and all his exertions were directed to the extirpation of the christian religion—he left no means unattempted—no experiment untried to effect what he deemed the purpose of his existence. Yet, this man, so employed, contributed more to the propagation of the Gospel truth, than any other individual of his day. He disseminated amongst the lower uninformed orders of the people, little tracts of infidelity, by which the faith of thousands was shaken, and he fondly believed that his object was accomplished. But what was the result of this ingenious artifice? Christianity took alarm at these daring inroads, and exercised the same means for the promulgation of gospel truths, and the consequence has been, that amongst nations who never before beheld the light of the gospel—who sat in the darkness of idolatry—a glorious illumination has been spread abroad. The Ethiopian and the Hottentot have both bowed their knees at the foot of our redeemer. If Voltaire could arise from the dead, what would he think at beholding the play of the formidable engine that he himself had invented—to behold his favourite infidelity expiring under the blow of weapons; what would he say if he was told that he was himself the unconscious instrument of bringing about a change so mighty? Yet this example, astonishing as it is, is only one amongst a thousand where the hand of Providence is distinctly seen, in the government of the Universe, regulating all the actions of man, for the accomplishment of his own purposes. We are in every sense of the word, but instruments in the hand of God; even when the infidel exults in the success of his projects for the abolition of Christianity, he is but bringing about a different order of things; he is but adding his seal to the truth of divine prophecies. What a proof of a superintending Providence does this fact present to the view. If we consult the pages of history, or if we cast our eyes on the events of the present day—if we look to the right hand or to the left, we can but be convinced of the truth of these remarks.

New-York, November 3.

VERY LATE FROM ENGLAND. The fast sailing and regular trading ship Minerva, Skeffling, arrived at this port on Saturday in 27 days from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the morning of the 4th of October. The Editors of the Mercantile advertiser have received by this arrival their files of Liverpool papers to the 3d, London, to the 1st of October, and Lloyd's list to the 30th September, all inclusive.

The Rev. Dr. Mason has arrived in this ship, we understand, much improved in health.

The last Liverpool letters, and all the accounts, state that the harvest had not proved so abundant as was expected, and the quality of the New wheat was inferior and unfit for present use; in consequence of which, American and other foreign wheat and flour had advanced considerably within the last ten days, and it was believed the ports would continue open after the 16th of Nov.

American stocks in London September 30—Three per cents 71 1/2—new Six per cents 104 to 104 1/2; Seven per cents 109 a 110; U. States bank shares 36 1/2. 50. all with dividends from the first of July.

British stocks, October 1—Consols 81 1/4; ex account 81 1/2; do. for November, 82.

The Typhus fever has made its appearance in London.

The last French papers are entirely filled with details of the progress of the action in the department of the Seine, which is decidedly in favor of what is called led the liberal party, or revolutionist.—This is likely to be the case all over the kingdom: a circumstance of infinite importance to France in her present state of affairs.—The Bourbonists and ultraroyalists are terribly alarmed at this aspect of things.

A public subscription has been opened in Paris for the support of the liberty of the press, and for defraying the expenses of writers prosecuted for doctrines favorable to human freedom. M. Lafitte, governor of the bank of France, and the duke of Broglie, member of the chamber of peers, are to receive the subscriptions and apply them.

Much political discontent appears to be growing up in Berlin and other parts of Prussia. Societies are forming with a view of procuring a constitution founded on principles of liberty. It is said the king of Prussia has agreed to withdraw his contingent of troops from France, on receiving the amount to which he was entitled by treaty up to the year 1827.

The London Courier says it is understood to have been signified, that any British officer who enters the service of the Spanish insurgents will be struck off their half pay list.

Very recent letters from Lisbon and Oporto state that the coast of Spain and Portugal swarm with insurgent privateers, who have made many valuable captures.

Another advance has taken place in copper. It rose in September, at Turin, to 125; within the last two years it has been sometimes as low as 73 1/2.

A private letter from St. Petersburg states that the court of Russia has obtained of the court of Austria the prohibition of the export of every species of ammunition for the use of the insurgents of South America. The court of Russia is likewise occupied with a project for engaging all the powers in Europe to take rigorous measures against pirates, including the insurgent privateers of South America. The Russian squadron is to proceed to Tunis to obtain satisfaction for an insult to the Russian flag.

A 74 gun ship has lately been launched at Carlscrona, said to be the finest in the Swedish navy; the restoration and increase of which appears to be a peculiar object of that government.

The corn markets in Holland and Flanders have lately advanced considerably, notwithstanding the favorable harvest. The government was interfering to prevent monopoly or speculations in grain.

Liverpool, Oct. 5.

The accounts from London this morning state that an advance of from 2 to 10s per quarter has taken place in wheat, which, if maintained, our ports will unquestionably remain open after the 15th Nov. The harvest is not a superabundant as was represented; indeed, most of the new wheat is damp, and unfit for immediate use. In consequence flour has been gradually advancing for the last ten days, and 54 to 55s for sweet American flour, and 42 to 43s per barrel for sour, is now demanded. Lard is scarce, and steady at 36 to 38s per cwt.

Cotton is very dull—we never knew it more so; but most of the holders refuse to sell at a decline, anticipating an early revival of the demand. We now name uplands at 19s to 22s 1/4; Orleans 22 to 24 1/4; sea islands 24 to 26 1/4.

Turpentine has been very scarce, and advanced to 17 a 18 1/2; but a large quantity has just arrived, which will probably lower the price. Tar, steady at 15s. 17s; tobacco dull; Virginia 4d to 8d; ashes also dull, 4s a 5s; pearls 65s to 65.

In several parts of Russia they use with the greatest success, against the bite of a mad dog, a plant called Alisma Plon-tuga. A particular account of this plant is to be found in the Memoirs of the London Economical Society, of the year 1809.

The Active frigate has arrived in England from Jamaica, with 900,000l. chiefly in dollars, the greater part of which is for account of merchants.

Upwards of 300 stocking weavers in Nottingham have struck for an advance of wages; they ask for full 30 per cent. advance.

Arrangements are making to light the town of Liverpool with gas. It is said important improvements have recently been made in the construction of the pipes for the purpose.

The London Courier of Oct. 1, concludes a long article on the subject of South American affairs, by saying that "England can take no part in the quarrel between Spain and her colonies."

The emigration from Europe to the U. States is estimated in London to exceed 100 weekly.

IMPORTANT REPORT.

Arrived at Boston, on Friday last, the brig Hope, Boston, 53 days from St. Sebastian. Capt. Boden informs, that a day or two previous to his sailing, a report was in circulation, that war had been declared between the Spaniards and Portuguese, on account of some possessions which each claimed in South America.—The report reached St. Sebastian by the way of Madrid, and it was generally believed to be true.

Notice.
To the Creditors of the Family of Geo. CARTER, deceased.
Gentlemen,
It has become expedient for me to solicit of you further time in which I may discharge the balances yet due to you; and mean while that you would forbear to institute suits. Such indulgence, if you grant it, will facilitate and hasten the voluntary discharge of debts, which, before I assumed them, you are sensible that I could not have been legally compelled to pay. For inducement to such lenity, permit me to point out the fund whence your claims shall be acquitted, and also the time when. The time, if you consent to forbear the institution of suits, (which imply delay and unnecessary costs) shall not exceed six months from this date. The fund accrues from the result of the final decree rendered in F. v. 1816, in the case of Carter and others against Cutting and others, by the operation of which more than fifty thousand dollars, principal and interest and costs, have been adjudged due to this family. My undisputed and indisputable interest, in a portion of this fund, is adequate, and shall by me be applied to satisfy all your demands upon this family. The original amount of those demands you know that I have diminished by repeated payments heretofore made; and recently, by an assignment of three years' rents of the Parke Estate; and finally, by the absolute sale of my own slaves to exonerate those of minors, that otherwise could not have been delivered to the young owners. Moreover, in proof of my zeal to obtain proper means for the extinction of your just demands against the family of my adoption, I can, without ostentation, refer you to the unwearied toil and prudence of my general proceedings, which indeed have not been relaxed during the past ten years. Not one of you, I think, will deny, that my course has been marked by an inflexible adherence to justice, self-denial, industry and frugality—humble qualities (it is true) and often neglected by lofty people; yet, nevertheless, which persons, in circumstances of mediocrity, appreciate on account of their moral utility; qualities, that for such as exercise them, ensure ultimate fidelity to engagements, and which are peculiarly estimable in correct debtors, because they both cherish the ability and evince the resolution to satisfy their just creditors.

RAN AWAY from William Galt, near Fredericktown, on the Lancaster road, in April last, a Negro Woman, named JULIET, about 30 years of age, 5 feet high, has lost several of her upper front teeth, speaks quick & sharp—says she was sold by a Mr. Darby, of Anne-Arundel county, to some Georgia traders whom she left near Richmond, Va. and was lodged in Fredericktown jail, from whence she was sold for her jail fees, & purchased by John P. Thompson, and by him sold to William Galt. It is supposed she is now lurking about the district of Columbia or its vicinity. N. B. Masters of vessels and others are forewarned against carrying off said runaway.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on Saturday evening, the 11th inst. my mulatto man, named NED, commonly called NED McRae alias SKEWINS. He is about 23 or 24 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and was raised in Manchester. Ned is well made, high forehead and large flat nose; had on when he went away a grey coat and pantaloons, but as he was well provided with clothing of various kinds, it is probable he may have changed his dress. It is believed he went off with his wife, who it appears left Richmond at the same time; she is very black, and I believe, somewhat pitted with the small pox, talks a great deal, of short stature, and rather thick made. Ned is very artful, and may probably attempt to pass for a free man; he has a sly look when spoken to. The above reward will be given if taken out of Richmond or Manchester, and twenty-five dollars if taken in either place, and all reasonable expenses paid for delivering him to the subscriber.

James Kennedy & Son,

BOOKSELLERS,

KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

Lee's Medicine Store,

No. 48, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various & gross complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or gripping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Tenes or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat;

convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in each case.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness, having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended.

HALL'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favor of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance; they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Lowness of spirits back

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

Warranted an infallible remedy for application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with the tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent ingredients, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of age, weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.
